857 MALKIN AVENUE (HAWKS AND MALKIN)

Please join us at the Strathcona Field House for our winter events. These are the last Field House Ensemble projects, so we hope that you can join us in closing off a great year!

Deck the Paws! November 23 1pm - 3pm

The very last Bow Wow pet portraiture service of the year - bring your dogs and cats for an original illustrated portrait of your pet on Holiday Greeting Greeting card. Registration is required. All portraits are made available for trades. Please visit www.fieldhouseensemble.tumblr.com for more information.

Tea and Cozy with the Slofemists November 30 1pm - 3pm

Lois Klassen and Lori Weidenhammer invite you to be a part of Slofemists, a long-run artists' project that offers the unhurried production of feminisms. Participants should bring a feminist story that has inspired them to share, in exchange for a take-home feminist embroidery pattern. Supplies for an afternoon of feminist embroidery will be provided. Embroidered linen patches from Slofemists events will eventually form a composite patchwork that will be used as a couch cover or Slofa - a prop to designate a mobile space for dialogue and performance.

To join in the Slofemists embroidery circle at Strathcona Field House or book a pet portraiture please RSVP to fieldhouseensemble@gmail.com.

Klassen and Weidenhammer are past collaborators in the Means of Production Artists Raw Resource Collective (with Sharon Kallis, 2009) and CornerFarm: Repurposed Planters for Avant Gardeners (2008). Lori and Lois have collaborated on a number of projects concerning ecology and sustainable lifestyles.
